FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE —

SUMMER GROUP EXHIBITION AT PHILIPPE STAIB GALLERY

New York City --

The Philippe Staib Gallery, at 8 Greene Street, will present a summer group exhibition which will open on Thursday, June 28, and remain on view through July 28. Primarily a show of emerging sculptors, the artists include: Ted Brooke, Jackie Brookner, Paul Darroch, Chris Duncan, Nade Haley, Paulo Malfi, Susan Mastrangelo, Michael Mastrogiamoco, Michael McKeown, Gayil Nalls and Daniel Weiner.

The works on view will explore a variety of media: from wood and steel, to bronze and plaster, canvas and wire, and will delve into the relationship between object and viewer: these are works that demand space and invite interaction.

The Philippe Staib Gallery is one of New York's newest, and approaches its first anniversary committed to being a space for sculpture, and to showing truly interesting work.
